SABINE HALL, the historic old home of the Wellfords, will be the scene of a wedding to-day at high noon, when Miss Elsie Landon Wellford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carter Wellford, will become the bride of T. Norman Jones, Jr., of this city. The ceremony will take place in the old wainscoted hall, which is a large and comfortable length of the house. At one end of the hall is a wide arch through which the stairway is seen and down which the bride and her attendants will come. The ribbons will run from each side of the arch to the opposite side of the hall, where an improvised altar will be arranged. The hall will be decorated with white flowers and the whole house. The hall will be lighted with lots of candles and will be hung with green and white chrysanthemums. Roses and palms will decorate the altar and the balustrade will be wound with a rope of smilax and white blossoms, with a great bunch of chrysanthemums at the nuptial post. The Rev. Arthur B. Kinsolving, rector of St. Paul's Church, in Baltimore, will perform the ceremony in the presence of a distinguished gathering of relatives and friends who have come to the wedding. Mrs. Carter Mitchell will play the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" at the entry of the bride party.

The bride's wedding gown is fashioned of ivory satin and made with a full train. It is trimmed in exquisite old lace and the bodice is very elaborately embroidered. Her tulle veil will be arranged with a coronet of orange blossoms, and she will carry a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Her only ornament will be the Carter cross of diamonds, which has been worn by her mother and is valued at $10,000. She will carry an armful of pink chrysanthemums, which will be the groom's best man.

The bridesmaids will wear quaint little pink satin frocks veiled in a soft chiffon and trimmed with wide ruffles of lace, and will carry big bouquets of white chrysanthemums tied with pink tulle. They will include Miss Mildred Foster, of Alexandria; Miss Camilla Scott Wellford, of Richmond; Miss Frances L. Bembs, of Richmond; Miss Cecelia Hoge Brattin, of Princess Anne, Maryland; Miss Nellie St. George Lemmon, of Baltimore; and Miss Marianne Gibbs, of Philadelphia. Two little girls, Page Baird and Bettie Chinn, of Warsaw, in dainty linette frocks, with wide pink sashes, will hold the ribbons. There will be a wedding breakfast immediately following the ceremony, after which Mr.

Civic Betterment Club Takes Over Care of Hurlump Park—Other Fredericksburg News.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Hefflin the latter's business property on Commerce Street, between Main and Princess Anne, Mr. Curtis will tear down the old building and erect a handsome storehouse, with all modern conveniences.

At the request of the Civic Betterment Club of this city, composed entirely of women, the care of keeping Hurlump Park in the center of the city, has been given into their hands by the direction of the City Council. The women, whose purpose is to promote better appearances and better sanitary conditions in the city, have employed a force of hands who are now raking up the leaves, filling up uneven places and otherwise improving the appearance of the park, which can be made a very attractive spot.

Captain Dan M. Lee, delegate from Maury Camp Confederate Veterans of this city, left today; also Captain T. C. SOUTHSIDE FAIR AT PETERSBURG

Third Annual Exhibition Probably Will Be Best Ever Held.

MANY THOUSAND VISITORS

Great Display of Products of Adjacent Counties Is Made.

Times-Dispatch Bureau, 105 North Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va., October 17.

The third annual fair of the Southside Agricultural and Industrial Association was opened here to-day with fair weather, and a fine attendance. The first of the series of fairs held two years ago was on a very modest scale—local altogether. The one last year was of larger proportions, embracing exhibitors from the three counties of Chesterfield, Dinwiddie and Prince George. It proved so successful financially, and in its varied exhibits, that the association determined to organize for subsequent fairs on an elaborate scale to embrace in its exhibits the whole southside section of the State. The city gave the association the West End Park for its grounds and appropriated $12,000 to aid in erecting the necessary buildings. A great many merchants in the city and farmers throughout the counties subscribed to stock in the association, and the result to-day is one of the finest and fullest exhibitions ever known in the State, outside of the State Fair.

Gratifying Exhibition.
Commonwealth's Attorney Richard H. Mann is the president of the association, and James McI. Ruffin is the general manager, and they, with the board of directors, have labored hard and long to bring about the very gratifying and highly successful exhibition, which was opened to the public to-day. So far as excellency, extent and variety are concerned, and so far as arrangements for the comfort and convenience of visitors are involved, the fair is a notable success.

MARRIED AND UNMARRIED LADIES

Will Find Some Useful Advice in the Words of Mrs. Jay McGee of Stephenville

Stephenville, Tex.—"For nine years," says Mrs. Jay McGee, of this place, "I suffered from womanly troubles. I had terrible headaches and pains in my back, etc."

My husband suggested Cardui to me, but I did not think anything would do me any good.

It seemed as if I would die, I suffered so! At last I consented to try Cardui, and it seemed to help me right away. I was interested and continued its use.

The full treatment not only helped me, but it cured me.

It will do the same for all sick and suffering girls or women—both married and unmarried.

I will always praise Cardui highly, for it has been the means of saving my life and giving me good health."

Half a century of success, with thousands of cures, similar to the one described above, amply prove Cardui's real, scientific, medicinal merit.

Being purely vegetable, Cardui can be taken safely by young and old, and can do nothing but good. Its action is very gentle, and without any bad after effects.

Why not benefit by the experience of others? Try it to-day.

On the opening day several thousand visitors were on the grounds. The great crowds are expected to-morrow and later.

Acres of machinery are displayed in the open and under sheds—all running—and a great display of farm implements of modern and improved make is made. This is one of the most interesting features of the fair, and, of course, most attractive to the farmers.

The great exhibition building is a scene of beauty and delight. There are displayed in charming array the handwork of women, work of all kinds for household foods and delicacy to the skilled eye of a finest embroidery, quilting, etc.; there, too, are found the admirable work of school children, and the displays of goods by merchants, all arranged with charming effect.

There are between eighty and one hundred booths in this building, every one occupied and full. The exhibit from the experimental farm of the Norfolk and Western Railway Company is a notable one—grains, grasses, hays, seeds and preserved fruits.

Evidences of Progress.
The agricultural building, filled with the varied products of the soil, attracts universal attention. It gives evidence of what the Southside counties can do under modern methods of farming. Splendid samples of the dark tobaccos, for which the southside is so famous; great rows of Spanish and Virginia peanuts on the vines—evidences of a fine crop; hundreds of piles of white and yellow corn, raised by the boys' clubs; all varieties of seeds, grains, grasses and hays; all manner of vegetables in perfection, meet the eye and excite the admiration of the visitor.

Over 200 horses are on exhibition, many of the pacers, trotters and runners of record on the turf, and many of which have been entered for the races, and many of them very fast ones.

The stock buildings contain many very fine exhibits of cattle, hogs and sheep, while the poultry building is filled with cages of the choicest breeds of fowls of all varieties.

The fair is made especially attractive at night, with its brilliant illumination. Its varied amusement attractions and its beautiful display of fireworks. The crowds to-night will be as large as those in the day.

To-morrow Petersburg Day.

Thursday has been set apart as "Petersburg Day." Mayor Cameron has called attention to the fact, and in a proclamation issued to-day requests all merchants and manufacturers to close their places of business on that day to enable their employees to attend. To-morrow will be Children's Day. All public and private schools will be closed in honor of the day, and thousands of children will attend the fair.

The Races.
There were five races this afternoon, witnessed by a large crowd. They were as follows:

First race—four entries, pace, purse $200, one mile, winner Little Belle, Time, 2:15 1-4.

Second race—five entries, trot, purse $200, one mile, winner Anna C. Time, 2:21 1-4.

Third race—two entries, trot, special one mile, winner Dr. Peter, Time, 2:23 3-4.

Fourth race—ten entries, running, five-eighths mile, purse $150, winner Lucile R. Time, 1:03 1-5.

Fifth race—six entries, running, one mile, purse $150, winner Lois Cavanaugh. Time, 1:45.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Ashville, N. C., October 17.—A surprise wedding which will create no little interest was that of Miss Elizabeth Arbogash to Frank Gudger, which was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Arbogash, at their home on Montford Avenue this evening. The engagement of the young people had not been announced, and while it was believed by their friends that the wedding was to be solemnized at an early date, it was thought that it would be one of the events of the late fall. Mrs. Gudger is one of Asheville's most attractive young women and has a large number of friends in this city. Mr. Gudger is manager of the Hendersonville Exchange of the Southern Bell Telephone Company.

FAIR AT AMHERST WILL OPEN TO-DAY

State Superintendent Eggleston Will Deliver Address—Big Attendance Expected.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Amherst, Va., October 17.—Arrangements are about complete for the opening of the Amherst county fair on Wednesday morning, on the grounds of the fair association at Amherst. With favorable weather, this will be the biggest and best fair yet held in the county. S. R. Harding, a prominent farmer and stock raiser, is president of the association, and E. L. Chapelle, secretary.

The work has been divided into different departments, and Wednesday has been set apart as "School Day." Superintendent Fletcher C. Campbell will have charge of the exercises. State Superintendent J. D. Eggleston, of Richmond, has promised to be present and deliver an address.

SUGAR REPORT TO BE FINISHED SOON

Believed Trust Controls Forty-two Per Cent. of Supply.

New York, October 17.—Confirmation of the story that the government experts who have been investigating the so-called sugar trust have completed their report, was given yesterday by congressman Wm. Sulzer, chairman of the subcommittee of the full committee appointed by the House of Representatives to carry on the inquiry.

Though Mr. Sulzer denied he was responsible for the information getting out that the trust controls only 42 per cent. of the sugar industry, he did not deny that the report of the experts shows such to be the case.

At Sulzer's office a meeting of the subcommittee was held yesterday for the purpose of reviewing the report. Those on the committee in addition to Sulzer are George R. Malby, of New York; Asher C. Hinds, of Maine, and McJannet, Jr., of Arkansas. According to Mr. Sulzer, the subcommittee will within the next two weeks digest the findings of the experts, in preparation for a report, and will submit the report to the full committee at a meeting to be held about November 15, either at Washington or New York.

Asked as to the rumor that the government experts had reported no sugar trust exists, because only 42 per cent. of the sugar industry is controlled by it, Mr. Sulzer said he would not care to say whether he considered that sufficient proof that there is no monopoly.

Mr. Sulzer would not speculate as to what the full committee will think of the findings of the experts.

Schoolfield—Hanes.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Winston-Salem, N. C., October 17.—A beautiful wedding took place this evening at 6 o'clock when Miss Frank Hanes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Hanes, of this city, became the bride of John Schoolfield, Jr., of Danville, Va. It was a brilliant church wedding in Centenary Methodist Church, the ceremony being performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. J. E. Abernethy, assisted by Dr. J. B. Winn, of Danville. The bride was given in marriage by her father, and the attendants were Miss Madge Vass, of Danville, and Miss Emma Balby, Harry Davis, of Norfolk, and James Hanes, Miss Anna Hanes, of Elm Hill, N. C., George Martin and Jeff Rison, of Danville; Miss Senah Critz and Miss Bland Schoolfield, of Danville; Herbert Spencer and Albert Patton, of Danville; Hannon Schoolfield, of Danville; Mrs. W. T. Old, of Elizabeth City, Md.; and others.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Peculiar happiness attaches to this day in the Schoolfield family, since October 17, fifty-one years ago, was the wedding day of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Schoolfield, Sr.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. After an extended bridal trip
